CRIME STAINED.

good woman bandaged my hand, gave took my earnings and got married, me a good dinner and I prepared to start to the nearest town. Her son soon as Mr. Jones settled with me 1 me a good dinner and I prepared to start to the nearest town. Her son passed me on the road when I immediately returned to the house and in distely returned to the house and in start to the nearest town. Her son passed me on the road when I immediately returned to the house and in distely returned to the house and in
start to the nearest town. Her son passed me on the road when I immediately returned to the house and in start to the nearest town. Her son passed me on the road when I immediately returned to the house and in start to the nearest town. Her son passed me on the road when I immediately returned to the house and in
start to the nearest town. Her son passed me on the road when I immediately struck at him with an ax. Mr. Anamosa grabbed it and started toward Charley the starvation route. I fas'ed three her, and they began to quarrel. Charley struck at him with an ax. Mr. Anamosa grabbed it and started toward Charley the starvation route. I fas'ed three her, and they began to quarrel. Charley struck at him with an ax. Mr. Anamosa grabbed it and started toward Charley the starvation route. I fas'ed three her, and they began to quarrel. Charley struck at him with an ax. Mr. Anamosa grabbed it and started toward Charley the starvation route. I fas'ed three her, and they began to quarrel. Charley struck at him with an ax. Mr. Anamosa grabbed it and started toward Charley the starvation route. I fas'ed three her, and they began to quarrel. Charley struck at him with an ax. Mr. Anamosa grabbed it and started toward Charley the starvation route. I fas'ed three her, and they began to quarrel. Charley struck at him with an ax. Mr. Anamosa grabbed it and started toward Charley the starvation route. I fas'ed three her, and they began to quarrel. Charley struck at him the could not have her, and they began to quarrel. formed his mother that he had sent him I was going to marry his daughwhich the unsuspecting woman gave me and I have never met mother or son since. I next stopped at the house preacher and was married. We then weeks and then moved and worked body he would kill me also. He went for a weeks and then moved and worked body he would kill me also. He went for a weeks and then moved and worked body he would kill me also. He went for a weeks and then moved and worked body he would kill me also. He went for a weeks and then moved and worked body he would kill me also. He went for a week and then moved and worked body he would kill me also. He went for a week appears to shad and killing him. He then told then obtained me a splendid meal, weeks and then moved and worked body he would kill me also. He went for a week appears to shad and killing him in the back of the data of the body he would kill me also. He went for a week appears to shad and killing him. He then told then obtained me a splendid meal, we weeks and then moved and worked body he would kill me also. of a well to do farmer, remained there went out to a week and left without notice. On my arrival I gave him to understand I was very wealthy and be had the utmost confidence in me. I next tramped to Schell City, Mo., and went to work digging coal, remained there two weeks and left without settling my board bill. I then went to another mine south of Schell City, met a miner and worked with him for four weeks. Then went to work for a man by the name of Wright, worked for him six months, sued him for the amount due me, but the day of trial flower state of Kansas again. Since The next morning I started out to the expense of having a funeral. I buried her close to the house in has been called to that mansion in the Nevada. Informed him of the state skies. She had lived a true and devout Christian all her life and when he would be out shortly. He arrived the angels beckoned she was patiently at home shortly after I did and told

I WAS MISSING

I went over to purease a few cutting corn. After we had finished returned to Sedalia. I sawed wood for Mrs. Graves for two weeks, then night brother, his son and myself armed each with a sack, paid a midnight visit to that patch. I climbed over the fence are an offer to prospect for same on share I are the fence are an offer to prospect for same on share I are the fence ar over the fence and passed melons over to my brother and nephew until we had filed all controls and one of coal three inches thick. I over the fence and passed melons over to my brother and nephew until we had filled all our sacks and had as many as we could carry. The next day we invited Mr. and Mrs. Cook to eat dinner with us and taste the flavor of some of "our melons," which invitation they accepted. I cut some of the largest ones and we had what the largest ones and it took the combined efforts of James on the largest ones and it took the combined efforts of James on the largest ones and it took the combined efforts of James on the largest ones and it took the combined efforts of James on the largest ones and it took the combined efforts of James on the largest ones and it took the combined efforts of James on the largest ones and it took the combined efforts of James on the largest ones and it took the combined efforts of James on the largest ones and it took the combined efforts of James on the largest ones and it took the combined efforts of James on the largest ones and it took the combined efforts of James on the largest ones and it took the combined efforts of James on the largest ones and it took the combined efforts of James on the largest ones months and started on another tramp, Calhoun, and spent the following winter finally landing at Joplin, Mo.

I went to work loading cars with sand at which I remained two weeks He finally cheated me out of my some land we could have all we raised and left as usual, forgetting to settle entire work and I moved to Calhoun with my landlady. My next stopping occupying a house owned by Mr. Mr. Moore then rented some of his land to a neighbor who agreed to put rested that morning. I then bought both suffered severely from the cold. I next went to Schell City and remy contract with him, stole two bed quilts and left for Clinton and went to work for Mr. Young in the coal pits: remained with him and the coal pits and coal pits; remained with him until crippled by cutting my foot. Went to Schell City, expecting to find a hospital there, but was disappointed and Groves and had him to move me to mosa came around him again he would suit against him. The day before the ly proceeded to fall deeply in love. She told me she would marry me at a low ebb I had to postpone I ran short of funds and also had a felon on my hand and began to tramp again. I stopped at a house where the good women hand and began to tramp again. I stopped at a house where the some of my new neighbors and we followed the services of some of my new neighbors and we felon on my hand and began to tramp again. I stopped at a house where the some of my new neighbors are low ebb I had to postpone at a low ebb I had to be a soon as I married his daughter. He would often come over to where the low erected the house in which I immediate to be a soon as I married his daughter. He would often come over to where the low erected the hous

SEE MY FATHER-IN LAW.

He was not at home. We went into the house and had a talk with that much abused individual, my mother-he was going south. I saw him safely the surface. Mr. Anamosa then in-law. She was very much enraged aboard the cars and have never heard brought some watermelon seeds and when we told her that we were mar-ried. She said we were not married mor star ed that I had killed him, but according to law and that she would it was false and nothing was never not recognize any such performance thought of it. Shortly after this ocand drove me out of the house. I currence, my wife was taken very sick took up my position by the gate and with colic, shortly after eating supper. patiently awaited the coming of my wanted to call in a physician, but she father-in-law so he could explain mat was suffering intensely from it and I ters. I held my position all night, was afraid to leave her. She did not but like "the letter that never came," live an hour after taking sick. I and on my way tramping to the sun- no father-in law put in an appearance. buried her myself, being to poor to go awaiting their cell. My best and last friend had left me broken in heart over the misdoings of her boy.

I most immediately at nome snortly after I did and told and told the back of the head and knocked me to stay all night there and the next them she had gone to Calhoun to visit on the stove. I was senseless, and when I came to he was standing over them is doing the back of the head and knocked me to the present time.

May God have mercy on me.

Thomas A. Williamson. over the misdoings of her boy.

I went immediately to Bourbon county, one of my brothers having located there, and I lived with him. One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, Mr. Cook had a very fine melon patch.

One of his neighbors, the largest ones and we had what fondest hopes were soon shattered to the four winds and we could not find picking up all the work possible. In Mrs. Cook remarked that they were splendid and that she would have day. It was about three miles from Mrs. Cook remarked that they were splendid and that she would have splendid and that she would have some very fine ones ripe in a tew days and hoped we would honor her with a visit. I then told her they were a visit. I then told her they were offered us fifty cents per day to her melons we had just been eating. The light of that his father desired to have a talk with me. I went out to see him that his father desired to have a talk with me. I went out to see him then days when it took fire. The owner offered us fifty cents per day to extinguish the fire, but we could not extinguish the fire, but we could not cooking he would furnish me with all them what business they had in my I remained with my brother six this time to Mr Ranneys' place, near and went to work at a coal mine, board—ing with a woman by the name of Jones. A few days before Christmas few weeks with a widowed lady living that the did not a living until I could find permanent in millet. Instead of doing so he work which I did in the course of a planted it in corn. When Mr. Moore's sister and informed her that her brother was in the best of she told me that if I would get a goose were a miles from Calhoun. I come near us for some time. This remained there until she and my wife had a dispute. I then moved to living close by to part with one of the largest and fattest of her flock. I several miles from Calhoun. I come near us for some time. This neighbor's name was Anamosa, who living close by to part with one of the Sedalia and rented a house of Mr. Sedalia and rented a house of Mr. Ruston tried to obtain position at Mooney Challenge was in the best of health. I then went to a cabin just neighbor's name was Anamosa, who had a dispute. I then moved to Sedalia and rented a house of Mr. Sedalia and rented a house of Mr. Ruston tried to obtain position at Mooney Challenge was in the best of health. I then went to a cabin just neighbor's name was Anamosa, who had three daughters. One day shortly after his quarrel with Mr. largest and fattest of her flock. I Burton, tried to obtain position at carried it to Mrs. Jones who placed it in the smokehouse for the night. The in the smokehouse for the night. The next morning, Christmas, I went out to pay rent. I finally obtained a the class of the class in the smokehouse for the night. The next morning, Christmas, I went out to pay rent. I finally obtained a to sell some of our furniture morning, Christmas, I went out to pay rent. I finally obtained a to sell some of our furniture morning, Christmas, I went out to pay rent. I finally obtained a to sell some of our furniture morning, Christmas, I went out to pay rent. I finally obtained a to sell some of our furniture morning, Christmas, I went out to pay rent. I finally obtained a to sell some of our furniture morning, Christmas, I went out to pay rent. I finally obtained a to sell some of our furniture morning, Christmas, I went out to pay rent. I finally obtained a to to the dancing paysilion, but I licked up as much of the drug as possible and took what remained in the cup and then younger girls. In a few days we secorted the young ladies to a meeting of the Salvation Army at Sedalia and to the dancing stand I commenced to the dancing stan I then went back to Joplin and shortly afterwards met another Mr. Jones and told him I was looking for a nice,

and told him I was looking for a nice,
and told him I was looking for a nice,
the moved me out to his place where the moved me out to that suited me I would buy it. He I remained two weeks, my wife having account of a proposition Mr. Ana giving me some medicine which eased money was at a small town a few miles distant from his place. We made a bargain and he conveyed me to the town, where I got away from had been the cause of me having to seek new quarters and green fields on him. It was a bitter cold day and we both suffered severely from the cold four occasions. She finally convinced me she had been imposed on in each mained there about two weeks digging coal. While there I stopped at the believer in Belva Lockwood's theory "Duck House," the best hotel in the city, and left without bidding them farewell, and of course forgot to settle my bill. I next went to Sedalia and obtained work with a man living five miles south of that city. I went by the name of Tom Dillon. I finished my married life was not a path of my contract with him atcle to the best hotel in the city. I went by the name of Tom Dillon. I finished my married life was not a path of my contract with him atcle to the suprement of the cause. But I me and decided our future paths lay in opposite directions, although she called to see me every day, and helped us as much as possible in our work. She informed me ber father instructed her to quarrel with me so as to more fully carry out our plans. I was confined in the negro side of the lower court and set as to more fully carry out our plans. "Duck House," the best hotel in the city, and left without bidding them of woman's rights she proceeded to be an expounder of that cause. But I for Mr. Lyons who resided three and to the bouse and got a horse and hired at the fair ground for three had a man by the name of Huff. We were sawing wood for $1.25 a cord, and placed it over the body. It was and it took the combined efforts of just one week after his son was killed us to saw a cord a day. We went that he also met the same fate at our is a very important one. back to Mr. Lyons and commenced cutting wood for him. We remained with Mr. Lyons for some time, barely making enough to keep us from starvmaking enough to keep us from starvmaking enough to Sedalia and as EVIDENCE AGAINST ME.

NOTED HER DISAPPEARANCE

AS EVIDENCE AGAINST ME.

AS EVIDENCE AGAINST ME.

Poisonous and injurious in baking powders.
WHEREAS, Baking Powders manufactured in this state, known as the "ROYAL" alum and other Baking picking up all the work possible. In my name and then be would come April Mr. Charlie Moore informed me and live with me the balance of his life.

WENT TO LIVE WITH HIM.

A few days after he told me that if deeds and have the property trans-ferred to him and would make it a The first thing I remember distinctly present to his daughter

THE DAY WE WERE MARRIED. That evening I called on Mrs. Arnold who lived in Sedalia, which caused Miss Anamosa to quarrel with continued on my journey to Nevada Mr. Erskin's place who made me a give him a chance to pick had three fights with prisoners con-Continued from First Page.

Continued on my journey to Nevada Imr. Ersain's place who made me a give min a chance to pick and three nghts with prisoners confined here on account of their talking which I accepted. I then began hewing logs to build me a house which at him any way, for using his land a prisoner struck me with a very a young lady with whom I immediate.

Mr. Erskin was to erect as soon as the for the purpo: he did. Mr. Anamosa sharp stick on this account and since ately took up quarters.

I worked 65 days for Mr. Erskin and cut twenty-two cords of wood for him. I moved on his place in December 1. I moved on his place in December 2. Charley Moore and myself were at has become the pet of the jail. I have been confined here since May asked him for his daughter. He told 30, 1890. I borrowed no him he could not have her, and they trouble until after my Erskin and his good wife. During He then threw the ax at him the long talk with me and fully convinct the middle of May I removed again to blade striking him in the back of the ed me that I was doing wrong. She one half miles east of the city. I plow and commenced plowing a trench, obtained a partner and we cut cord I leading the horse and Anamosa

EIGHT HILLS OVER HIS BODY.

Moore asked me if I knew where his I am patiently waiting and will walk until after we had our dinner, then moved it to the cellar where we left it remain until the next morning when he hauled three loads of dirt bands. Mr. Anamoss then told me a visit. I then told her they were her melons we had just been eating. She looked chagrined but being a woman of good sense she relished the man of good sense she relished the oke and enjoyed it hugely.

Of the look of the the Salvation Army headquarters, printed thereon in plain type, not remained for a short time, I then I and his son Charles would clear up save her notes and Salvation Army badge and told her to get a lawyer cision of the lower court and set ness principles.

I have never made a reasonable request of Mr. or Mrs. Smith, but what they have granted it and the feeling and high regards I have for them can not be expressed in words. I have had but very little trouble with my fellow prisoners and it all occurred on account of me defending Mrs. Smith when she became the subject He then told me to go to the house of conversation. There is one prisonand star on the place and if Mr. er who has treated me rather badly and in return be has my sympathy, that he went to town to get married for if he is given justice he will proband would remain a week and when the week had expired Mr. Anamosa tentiary. I wish Mr. Anamosa all would come over and see me. We went over to the house and Mr. I would in my mind, is a very small amount. son was. I told him he was in town to get married. He then became very angry and threw a stick of wood at me, and not being satisfied he threw a flat iron at me which struck me in

AN IMPORTANT BILL

The Royal Baking Powder Condemned in the New York Legislature.

[New York Press.]

Last Monday Mr. Kelly introduced the following bill in the assembly. A careful reading of it will show that it

An Acr to prevent the use of poisonous and injurious ingredients

Powders are advertised for sale as absolutely pure ; and,
WHEREAS, Official examination

show them to contain ammonia and other injurious ingredients; therefore THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

smaller than great primer and any person who shall sell, or have or offer for sale, any such can or package of baking powder without such label thereon, shall be guilty of misde-

Section 2. - This act shall take effect July 1, 1891.

ARE YOUR CHILDREN SUBJECT TO CROUP.

As a preventive and cure for croup, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has no rival. It is, in fact, the only remedy men all over the country. Mr. Gen-try's reputation as a dealer in animals whose records and pedigrees are secoffered to sell me his. I told him my money was at a small town a few miles distant from his place. We made a hargain and he countered to the made a hargain and he countered to the made a hargain and he countered to the made a hargain and he countered two weeks, my wife naving account of a proposition Mr. Ana mosa made to me viz., that if he my pains; they then removed me to to think that my wife either had a could get Mr. Moore sr., out of the way, he would obtain possession of being removed. The inmates informed for model and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides and no none, is wides and no none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides and no none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides records and pedigrees are second to none, is wides and no none, is wides and none none need condition to none, is wid miss his sale. He will offer about fifty saddle-bred, trotting horses, conme that they had to carry me in.

The first thing I remember distinctly was that Sheriff Smith was standing over me asking me to confess all. I told him several different stories to get him away from me.

My case came up for trial Feburary 3, 1891 and I was sentenced Feburary 7, to be hung March 20 My attorney carried my case to the supreme court of the conducted on strictly honest business before Justice Blair yesterday evening on the charge of disturbing the peace of Goodrich. He was fined $1.00 and costs, amounting to $14.25, and was committed to jail in default of payment.

Chas Kruger made complaint that interests demand his entire attention and for no other reason. He will in person superintend the sale and it will be conducted on strictly honest business. be conducted on strictly honest busi- come up before Justice Blair next

SEEKING A MADSTONE.

Mr. J. T. Coleman, a prominent Trainmen on the Lexington branch lumber dealer of California, Mo., reported a fire in progress as they pass morning Charley Moore and myself went over to Mr. Anamosa's house to borrow his auger. He said we could not have it, we reported to Mr. Anamosa's morning Charley Moore and myself other side, I have a high regard for Mr. Smith, especially for Mrs. Smith who has Mrs. Smith who has Mrs. Smith who has mosa came around him again he would. Since my confinement here I have Coleman was very much alarmed. who was bitten in the leg, yesterday, ed there last night.

CRIMINAL COURT.

The Complete Docket for the Coming November Term.

The November term of the criminal court of Pettis county will convene in this city on the 2nd of November, and will be unusually interesting. The docket is quite large and contains cases of more than ordinary importance. It is as follows :

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1891. Town of Houstonia vs James M Jones; appeal; obstructing street. State of Missouri vs John P Higgins; murder in the first degree. State vs William Musick; appeal; disturbing the peace.
State vs Charles E Musick; appeal; disturbing the peace.

State vs Thomas Williamson; murder, first degree. TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1891. State vs Thomas T Mullins; murder, first degree. State vs James H Churchill; obtaining goods under false pretenses. State vs Marion Sowash; larceny n dwelling house.

State vs C W Leabo and F B Fesler; man-laughter. State vs Joseph Hewitt; rape. WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1891. State vs James Walsh; seduction. State vs Samuel and Ernest Fleming; grand larceny.

State vs Dora Dewitt; keeping bawdy house.

State vs Nora Belmont ; keeping bawdy house. State vs Jessie Browning ; keeping bawdy house. State vs Daniel David; letting house to be used as bawdy house. State vs R A Kirtley; letting, building to be used as bawdy house. THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1891.

State vs Louis Landon; gambling. State vs William Major; gambling. State vs George Woodson; gam-

State vs Jesse Woodson; gambling. State vs W H Wilburn; cruelty to snimals; appeal.
State vs Samuel Walker; assault; appeal. State vs Livingston White; petit larceny; appeal.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1891. State vs Harry Lee; disturbing the peace; appeal.

State vs Vic Robinson; disturbing the peace; appeal.
State vs Charles M Joker; confidence game.

State vs Taylor Williams; assault and battery; appeal.
Sta.e vs Andrew Stewart; disturbing the peace; appeal. MONDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1891. State vs Ira Zimmerman ; arson. State vs Ira Zimmerman; arson.

GRAND JURY CASES. State vs Lawrence L Snorgrass. State vs Lee Belmont.

State vs J M Crouth and Charles State vs Thomas F Sibley alias J F Dunn.

State vs Edward Maupin. State vs Edward McCaslin.

State vs Charles Ison. State vs George T Jackson. State vs William Miller. State vs S A Merritt.

State vs Charles Allan. State vs Isaac H Glassburn. State vs J M Sh be. State vs Thomos A Smith.

State vs James Hull. State vs Charles S Hughes.

State vs Quincy Britt. State vs Emmet Woods. State vs Tim Donohoe.

FINE RACING.

There was some splendid racing at Association park yesterday evening and some good time made, as follows:

Hereafter these races will take place Thursday, when some fine contests will take place.

BEFORE JUSTICE BLAIR.

Wednesday.

FIRE AT HIGGINSVILLE.